Foreword

Time is—man marches on, is a statement sometimes misrepresented by us because these four years have sped so rapidly that we can scarcely realize that we have accomplished so much; and with that accomplishment has befallen the pleasant task of publishing the Annual Review Number of the Glen Echo. For our parents and friends we publish this issue, full of our many happy and sacred memories that will never be forgotten.

Dedication

We, the class of '48, dedicate this book to Pearl Meckley for her sincerity, ingenuity, and initiative which she used at all times.

We hope that she may continue to use these characteristics through life and that we, the class of '48, may also develop these characteristics.

To the Graduates

If, as is reasonable to suppose, the world continues to make progress in the years to come as it is today, the problems and conditions of twenty, or thirty years from now will be proportionately more complicated and more taxing upon human energy and mental alertness. You, who shall be tomorrow's citizens, must deal unaided, in the years to come, with the complexities which the future brings with it.

If you cope with the future successfully, it will be largely because of the training you have had during these years at school.

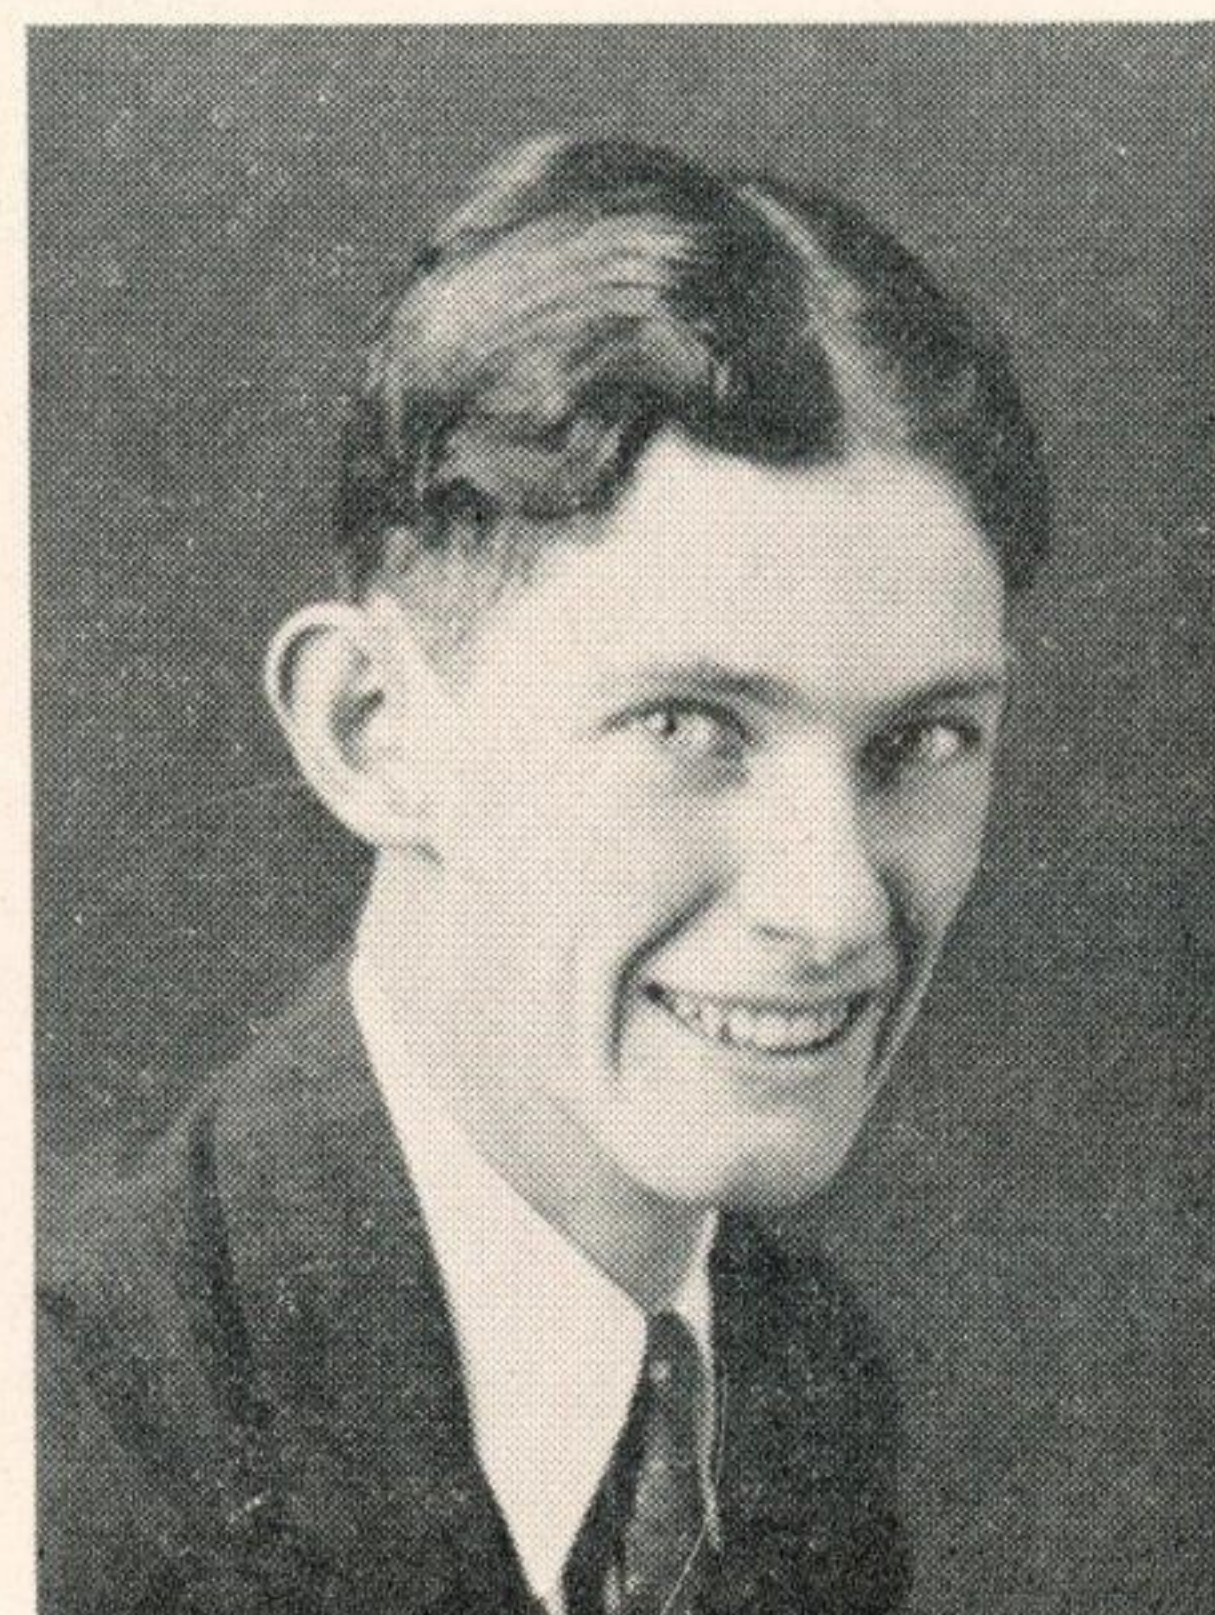

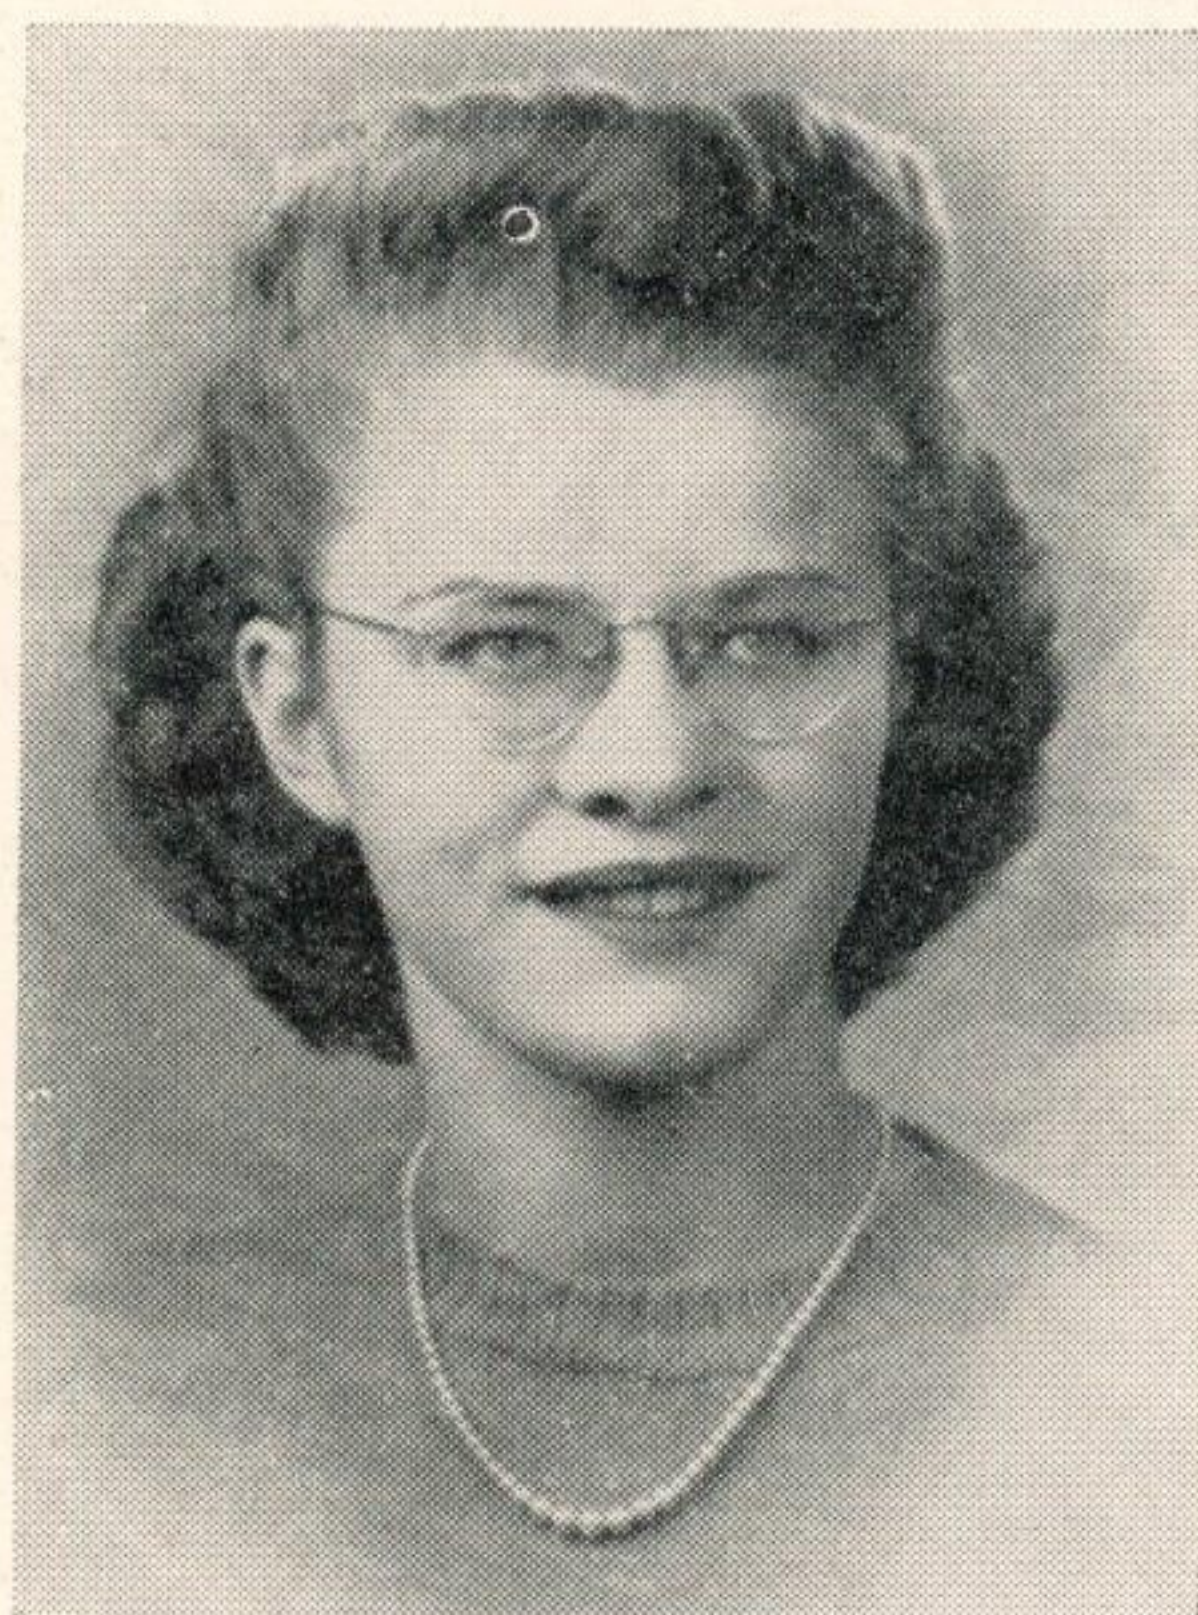

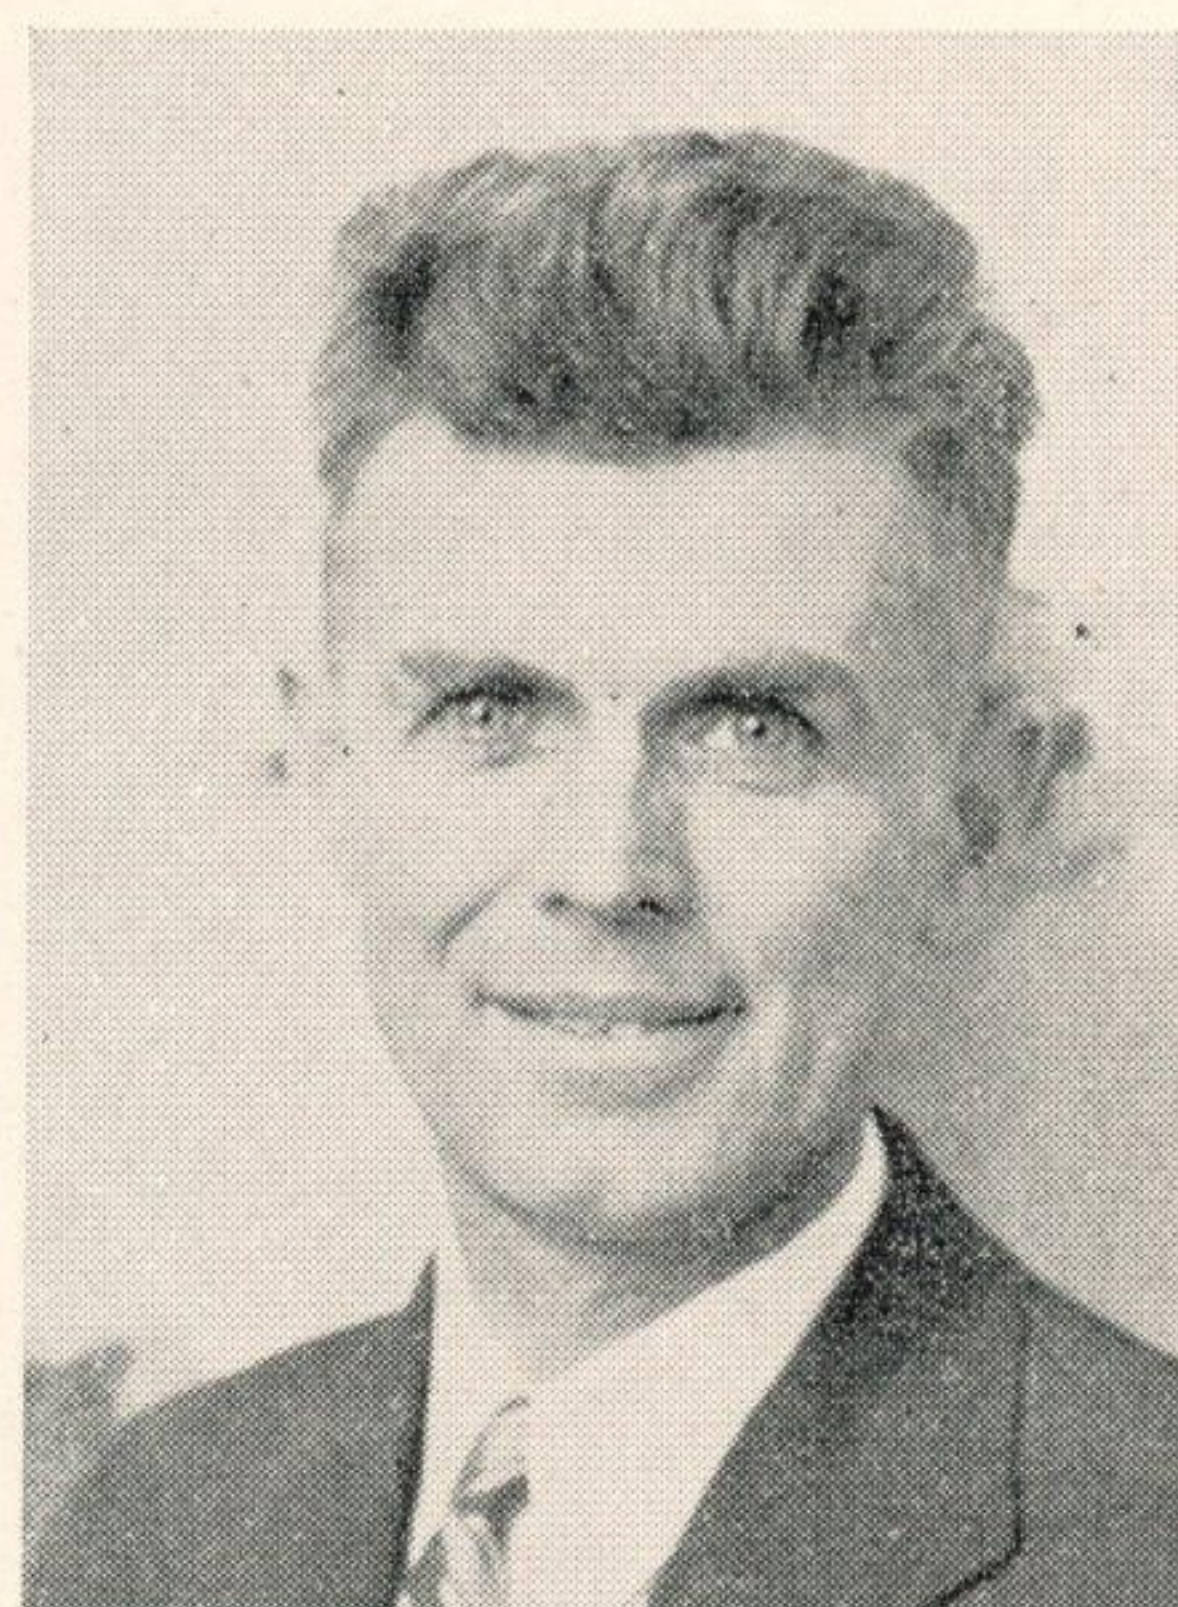

Probably the most important objective throughout your whole course was the acquiring of the ability to think. It seems strange, perhaps, that years should be spent in such an endeavor, but when we reflect how much present-day thinking is done in terms of standardized patterns of thought, the importance of the ability to think for oneself becomes clear. It means the ability to sort out the essentials from the non-essentials in any situations and to reason out sound and correct conclusions from the facts as they stand.

If you have been Eager to Learn the above fact, you are Ready to Serve, for the good of all.

RALPH A. BORTNER.

Alma Mater

Tune "Sweet Genevieve"

From hill and dale we daily come
With merry voices blithe and gay,
We sing at home and when at school
Of things we learn to do each day;
We'll boost our school in word and deed,
Codorus High has scores of friends,
For doctors, lawyers, pastors true
Have started here their famed careers.

We now do more than of yore,
Because our standards daily rise,
We know the future has in store
Some marvel and some grand surprise.
We're glad to live in this new day,
When man and nation onward move;
The home and school, the church and state
We know these all we may improve.

CHORUS

Codorus High, our Township High,
The days may come, the days may go;
But still to us fond memories cling
Of busy days on Glenville hill.
(To last stanza) Codorus High.

*Anna a teacher wants to be
And always our friend will be.*

DWIGHT LAMAR STAUFFER, Codorus, Pennsylvania

"Div"

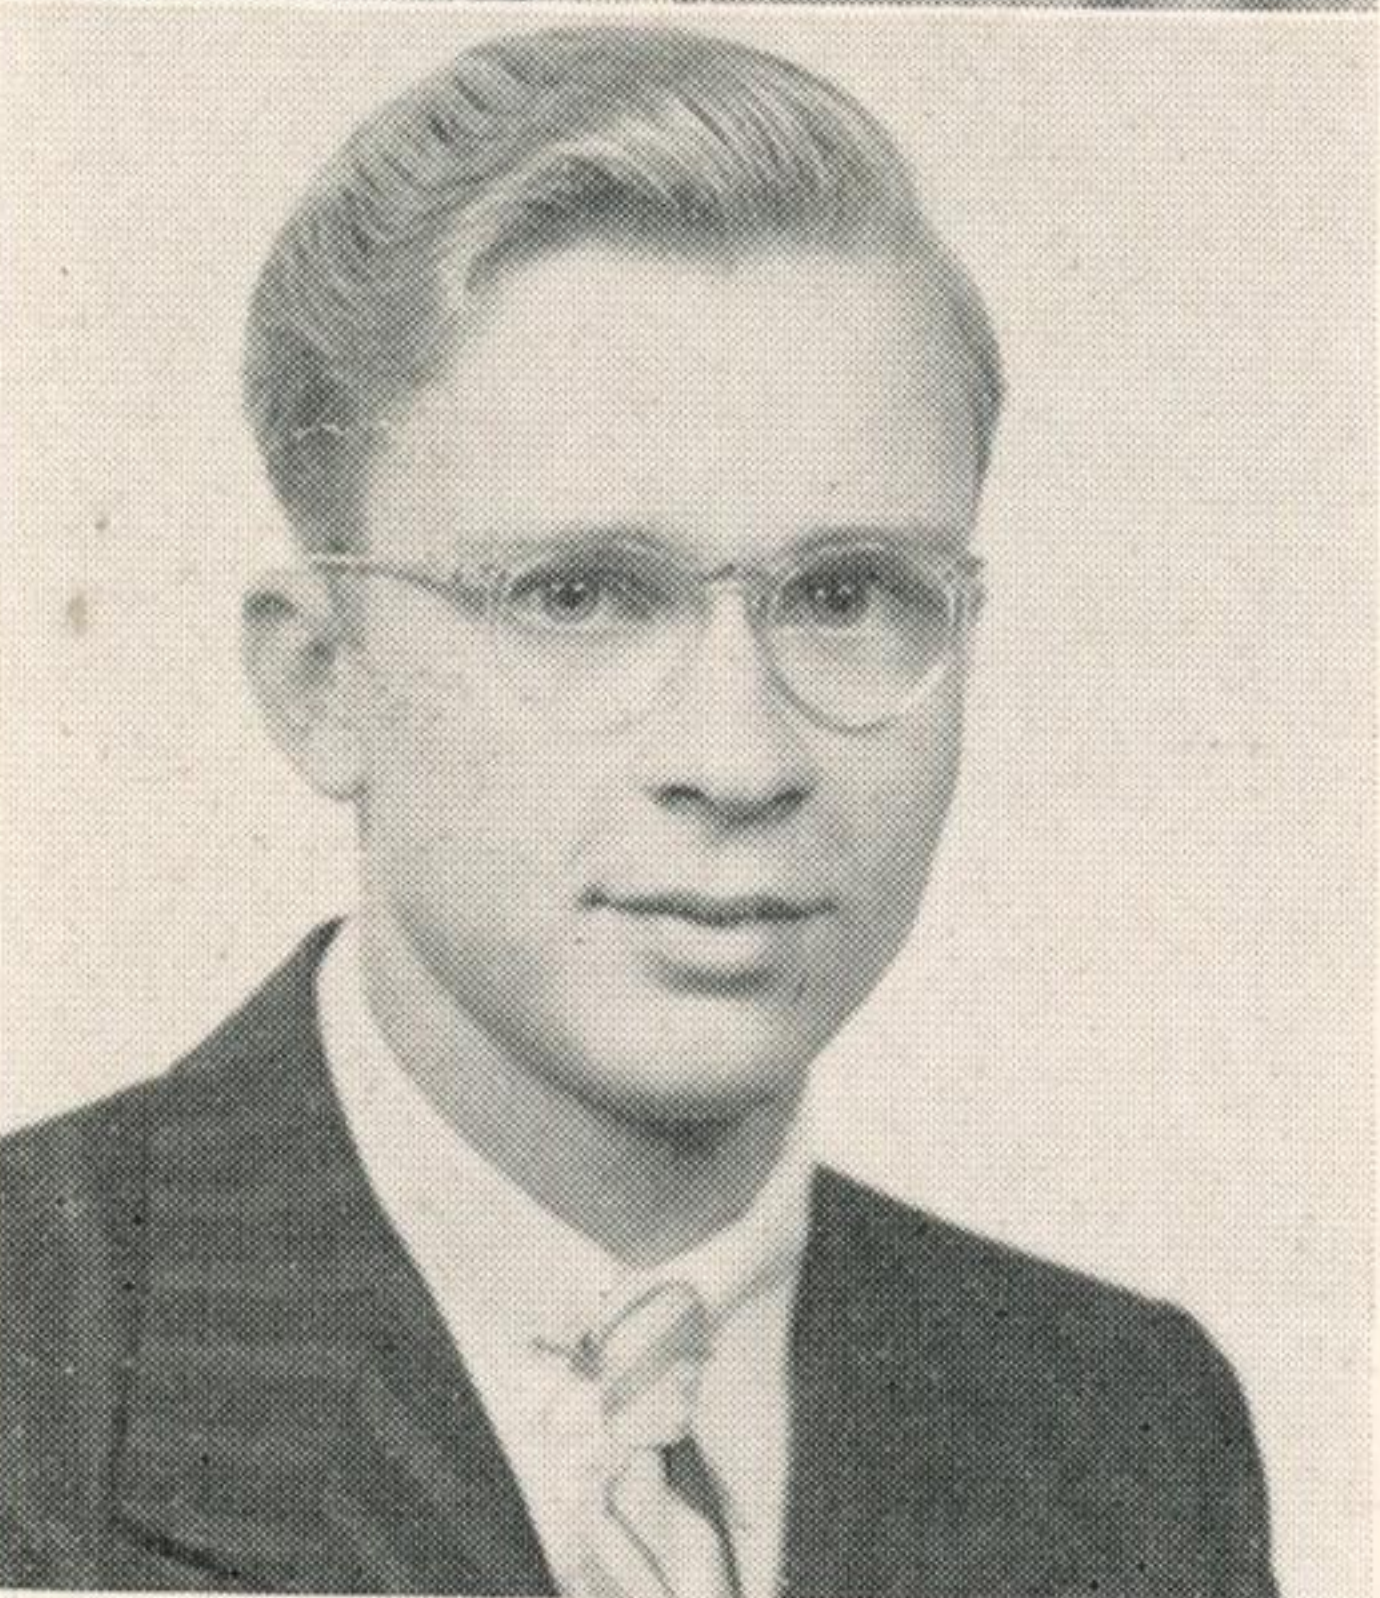

Orchestra (3, 4), Class Play (4), Class Day (4).

Div is just one of the gang at Codorus. He likes to go to Hanover whenever possible, and we wonder why. There must be some magnet which has great drawing power.

One of his main delights is playing the trumpet. When you drive past his place you can hear sweet music coming from the house.

We wish him luck in whatever he may choose to do.

*Div is always full of fun
Making music on the run.*

ROBERT EUGENE STINE, Seven Valleys R. D. 2, Pennsylvania

"Stiney"

Soccer (3, 4), Class Day (4), Glen Echo Staff (4).

When you first meet Stiney he seems to be a quiet kind of a guy, but after you have known him for four years you will have learned differently.

This year Stiney has shown his skill in athletics by playing soccer. He is also very studious in all of his classes. Stiney's main hobby is driving his Dodge.

Stiney has always been found to be a guy very gay and full of fun. He is a fellow who is usually attracted by the opposite sex.

Whatever his future is we wish him much success.

*To drive a Dodge is his delight,
Especially on a Saturday night.*

LOVIE FAYE TRACY, Brodbeck's R. D. 1, Pennsylvania

"Tracy"

Science Club (1, 2, 3, 4), Literary Society (3, 4), Chorus (2, 3, 4), A Cappella Choir (4), Operetta (3, 4), Class Play (3), School Play (4), Basketball (2, 3, 4), Volleyball (2, 3, 4), President of Literary Society (4), Class Historian (1, 2, 3, 4), Glen Echo Staff (3, 4), Class Day (4), Christmas Play (3, 4), Debate (2, 3, 4).

This person smiling at you is Lovie Tracy. Tracy is an all-around girl, not only in school work but in music and sports.

Skating is her pleasure and, without a doubt, she can be seen often at the Forest Park Skating Rink.

She has quite a bit of trouble holding the keys to that Ford car she drives so vivaciously. (Who says Tracy drives like a cowboy?)

Her ambition is to become a nurse. With all her pleasing personality and charm, we are sure she will be a successful girl-in-white.

*A lovely nurse Tracy will be.
But skating comes next, as you can see.*

SENIORS

GLADYS ROMAINE TRONE, Spring Grove R. D. 2, Pennsylvania

"Tronie"

Science Club (1, 2, 3, 4), Literary Society (4), Volleyball (2), Chorus (2, 3, 4), Operetta (2, 3, 4), Class Play (3, 4), Librarian (3, 4), Librarian of Chorus (4), Librarian of Science Club (4), Christmas Play (3, 4), Class Night (4).

Everyone knows Tronie. She is a friend of everyone and she really gets around.

She showed her dramatic ability when she portrayed "Aunt Cindy" in our junior play, "Aunt Cindy Cleans Up." She also portrayed the part of the maid in the senior play, "A Date With Judy."

A great deal of Tronie's time is occupied by a certain lad who hails from the outskirts of Jefferson.

She has a merry disposition and can often be heard giggling in the halls of C.T.H.S.

After graduation she expects to enter Millersville.

*Although Tronie doesn't live on a hill,
Her greatest pleasure is to go with Bill.*

DORIS ELAINE WALKER, Glen Rock R. D. 3, Pennsylvania

Science Club (1, 2, 3, 4), Christmas Play (3), Operetta (3), Librarian (4), Chorus (2, 3), Curtis Campaign Leader (4), Class Night (4).

Doris has been a friend of everyone during her high school years. She is very quiet and not at all hard to please.

Doris has shown her interest in the school by attending the athletic games. She says she hates to miss any of the games.

She has helped in the Glee Club and various other activities. Her favorite subjects seem to be French and Algebra.

After graduation she is not sure what the future holds for her, but we, the class of '48, wish her good luck in whatever she undertakes.

*Doris is very neat,
And her quietness cannot be beat.*

DORIS MAE WALKER, Glen Rock R. D. 1, Pennsylvania

"Shorty"

Literary Society (3, 4), Science Club (1, 2, 3, 4), Chorus (2, 3, 4), A Cappella (4), Operetta (2, 3, 4), Debate (2, 3, 4), Class Play (3, 4), School Play (4), Basketball (2, 3, 4), Volleyball (2, 3, 4), Glen Echo Staff (2, 3, 4), Secretary of Science Club (3), Vice President of Science Club (4), Secretary of Literary Society (4), Class Night (4), Christmas Play (4).

To whom it may concern: This is a picture of Doris Mae Walker, better known as "Shorty" or "Walker" (Walker is not to be confused with Talker, although she is very capable of talking). Doris is the shortest in the class, but this is not a hindrance to her.

She has taken part in all school activities. She has proved herself to be a help and a friend to everyone.

Next to going to the movies in Shrewsbury, Doris's favorite pastime is roller skating. Doris hopes to continue her studies in music and dramatics, and after seeing her show her musical and dramatic ability in our plays and operettas, we are sure that she will succeed. Lots of luck to you "Shorty."

*Her greatest desire is to sing and play.
Doris lives down the Glen Rock way.*

Senior Class History

BY LOVIE TRACY, '48

We, the class of '48, started our high school career four years ago. We started with an enrollment of sixty-seven eager freshmen.

After a short time we elected the following officers:

President: Daniel Roser
Vice President: James Miller
Secretary: Francis Kiser
Treasurer: Lucreta Senft
Reporter: Victoria Hoare
Historian: Lovie Tracy

As a motto we chose, "Eager to Learn, Ready to Serve." Our class colors were brown and yellow, and our class flower was the yellow rosebud. Mr. Schmuck, a former teacher, was our class adviser.

Returning as sophomores we learned that several people had discontinued their studies. During the year both boys and girls took an active part in all school activities.

The following people were elected as class officers:

President: James Miller
Vice President: Mary Jane Frank
Secretary: Lois Kitts
Treasurer: Lucreta Senft
Reporter: Doris M. Walker
Historian: Lovie Tracy

Mr. Fuhrman, a former teacher served as our class adviser. Our class motto, flower and colors remained the same as they were in our freshman year.

In our junior year we had more responsibilities and took part in more activities. We presented as our junior play, "Aunt Cindy Cleans Up."

Again both boys and girls participated in sports and other activities in the school.

This year our officers were the same as during our sophomore year. Our class motto and flower remained unchanged. We changed our colors to royal blue and vermilion red.

Mr. Fuhrman again faithfully helped us as our class adviser. Our deepest thanks and appreciation to him for his efforts.

During our junior year the class took trips to Philadelphia, Washington, Gettysburg and Virginia.

Last but not least comes our senior year. We started with a total of thirty-nine.

The highlight of our senior year was the presentation of our class play, "A Date With Judy." With the help of Miss Gaffney the play proved to be a success.

Pearl Meckley, a classmate, was stricken with infantile paralysis during her senior year. Because of this she was not able to be with us most of the year.

We again elected the same class officers as in our two previous years. Our class motto, flower and colors remained the same.

Mr. Bortner served as our class adviser.

We had many responsibilities as seniors and tried to do our best. With the help of all our teachers this was not so very difficult.

Class Poem

BY LOIS KITTS, '48

The hill looked steep and rugged that day,
As sixty-six students found their way
To the school at the top, Old Codorus High.
Yes, we were the freshmen, timid and shy.

We were a happy group our freshman year.
High school for us was nothing drear.
Some took part in sports, some studied like mad,
And we survived our first year without feeling too bad.

Our sophomore year brought something we weren't all expecting,
For then we had experience in the art of dissecting.
We gathered wild flowers and studied trees,
Insects and mammals and the life history of bees.

We then became juniors, eager and stern.
We had a will to work and a desire to learn,
With English, algebra, French and history,
Though a few experiments in physics still remain a mystery.

Then came our senior year, some of our happiest school days,
With its parties and sports, the operetta and our play.
We continued to study to avoid falling behind,
For many of us being seniors had a definite goal in mind.

Many are the memories that will linger, many the dreams we dreamed.
And even the hill we climbed that day is not as steep as it seemed.
For happy were our school days spent at Codorus High,
So in conclusion we just want to say so-long, not good-bye.

Class Song

Tune—"Now Is the Hour"

Now is the hour—when we must say good-bye;
Soon we'll be sailing far across life's sea.
While we're away, oh! we'll remember you
And dream of school days spent on Glenville Hill.

Our colors are—vermilion red and blue;
The yellow rosebud is our flower true.
Eager to learn and ready all to serve,
As we are going all our hearts do yearn.

Codorus High—to thee we bid farewell;
In joy and sorrow, you'll in our mem'ries dwell.
The time is here when best of friends must part.
Farewell Codorus High to you good-bye.

Last Will and Testament of the Senior Class

The senior class of 1948 A. D. of the Codorus Township High School, County of York and State of Pennsylvania.

Being of well-crammed brain, memory, and super-efficient understanding, do make and publish this our last will and testament.

Hereby we revoke and make void all former wills by us at any time heretofore made.

To the faculty we bequeath orchids, and say "Thanks for a job well done," in hopes that there may be some repayment for all of their time, efforts and patience.

To the junior class we give room 2 with its trimmings and also the honor of becoming sophisticated seniors.

To the sophomores and freshmen we hope for them to become upperclassmen and hope they will take advantage of all the privileges given to them so freely.

To our community we hope that they may profit by our having been here for these four short school years.

We give the technique of fumigating the building (but don't kill anything but the teachers' nerves) to Francis Sterner who will take the place of Richard Brenneman.

To any girl we will Senft's knack of doing homework for two because Bob usually has some leisure time.

To Dennis McWilliams we give Melvin and John Hamme's whiskers so that he may have some hope of becoming a man.

To John Newcomer we will Harold Dubs' ability to skate. Breaking one's arm in the attempt is very discouraging.

To Dwight and Lamar we will a daily bus line from Jefferson to Hanover.

To Freida Lehr we give James' splendid speaking ability so she too can have the pleasure of cashing some debate checks.

To Elva and Dean we present the first publication of Victoria and Sonny's book of "Devoted Love."

Lovie gives her skating ability to Delores Rohrbaugh. Not mentioning anything of the man.

Pearl bequeaths her personality to Lillian LeFevre. Lillian, boys fall for that, so be careful.

Doris M. Walker wills her dramatic ability to Marguerite Warner, especially in operettas.

To Charles Tyson we will Sas Roser's baseball mitt and a superfluous liquid called hold 'em.

Doris E. Walker gives her back seat in French to Betty Wildasin.

To Joyce Runk and Margaret Nafe we bequeath a brand new cook-book. Practice will make perfect, girls.

To Jim Price we present Danny Roser's seat in Chorus. Jim, give the same service as Roser.

To Betty Bohr and Grace Thoman we will Lois Kitts' and Mary Shaffer's job as being officers of the Man-Haters Association. Remember, "Faithfulness," is their motto.

To Frederick Trump we give Clyde's hot trumpet and all the jazz available.

Class Prophecy

MARY JANE FRANK, '48

In this atomic age, we with our infinitesimal minds cannot quite depict just what will happen to our classmates in their future years but, hold your hats kids, it is always fun to sit back in an easy chair or stretch oneself lazily before the fire and be carried away by some supernatural power to that magic fairyland we all call dreamland.

So let's just for the fun of it, eat a couple pieces of candy and a few pickles, since they are so enjoyable, for the purpose of hastening the reaction, of course.

What's that? You say you're thirsty? O.K., have some milk.

All set?

Ah! I always have to stretch myself out before the fire. It makes me feel so lazy and sleepy.

So as the sand-man tip-toes softly into the room and sprinkles dust in our eyes, we dreamers are whirled away to a lofty city in the clouds and the first human we see happens to be Roger Cramer, who is now a tiller of the soil, planting his crops. Further on our way we see the farm of Melvin Chronister who is now a swine raiser. Mrs. Chronister, the former Victoria Hoare, is his loving and faithful wife who manages the family with the greatest of care. Further on down the tree-lined dream, pardon us, we mean street, we see the beauty salons of Gladys Fourhman and Doris E. Walker. Right across the street is the general store owned and managed by Jack Barbehenn who guarantees not to please or your money back. Just as we near the corner of the street what do we see across the park, this side of the lake, and just a few feet from a railroad track? You guessed it—a baseball game. As we advance closer, very cautiously that is, we see none other than Lawrence Roser, known as Sas to all of us, behind the batter and wearing a catcher's mitt. We are told by an interested bystander that he sometimes catches the ball. And here comes the pitch straight from the paws of that all-American pitcher, Curtis Parrish. And the man is out, roars the umpire. Well so much for that.

Pardon the expression but, does anybody need a haircut? If so you can get it done at Richard Graf's Barber Shop just across the corner from the hospital; by the way, Jake cuts the fellows' hair before they are admitted to the hospital where those good-looking nurses Lovie Tracy and Lucreta Senft perform their many duties with the utmost care. Upon entering the hospital we come into a long corridor and stand before a bronze plate. Surveying the plate we find Clyde Miller and Mary Jane Frank are among the staff of surgeons at the hospital. Leaving the hospital, we looked O.K. to them so they let us go, we go on our way down the street to the residential section of the city and we are told by some bystanders that Louise and Melvin live in the house on the hill, and right next door live Tronie and Bill.

Upon reaching the more thickly settled section of the city we enter a beautifully structured stone church, yes, you heard correctly, we said church, where we find none other than James Miller leaning over the pulpit dishing out with that "Don't do as I do but do as I say," stuff.

Not far from the church is a new modern high school where Doris M. Walker is a teacher of Dramatics and Anna Snyder's cheery smile greets us from a classroom where she is a teacher of language.

Driving down the street it suddenly dawns upon us that we are running low in gasoline. We drive up to a garage where none other than Harold Dubs is the loyal proprietor.

As we once again go along our way we leave the city and begin to travel for miles seeing nothing but black space stretching endlessly into the horizon.

We snap on our television set, which we have been fortunate enough to have installed in our car, and learn that Daniel Roser is the television expert who takes pictures of those—well you kids all know Danny—those gorgeous models.

Finally reaching another city, we stop at a corner drug store, where Gladys Shearer is a clerk, to phone back to earth to find out how our kith and kin are getting along. As the receiver is lowered the voice of Lois Kitts is recognized almost immediately. She tells us that Mary Shaffer is also there and together they operate the switchboard. Traveling on further down the street we are informed that behind the revolving door in the immense marble structure on the corner is the insurance firm of Robert Rebert where Joyce Runk and Margaret Nafe are his faithful secretaries and Margaret Rudisill is his loyal accountant.

Again driving down the street we pass a gas station and we see a huge tractor-trailer truck and as we come closer to it, it becomes evident that it is the property of Krebs and Stauffers Transit between Earth and Mars. Not having time to stop and chat with our chums,

Hey! who woke me up?

Oh, it seems I've fallen from the chair, oh well, sofa's better anyway. Now where were we? Oh! we were driving down the street and snapping on our television set when we are informed that it has suddenly gone hay-wire. (Bless it) We stop at the first thing, or we should say person, we see and we are surprised to see Marion Hunt and Erma Kaltreider. They are clerks in a large department store. We ask them if they know of anyone who can fix our blessed television set and they inform us of Raymond Shaffer so we go to his shop, what do ya' know, we can follow directions, and he fixes it, guaranteed not to work or our money back. Raymond informs us that Robert Stine, now a great scientist, is designing a rocket which he plans to use for his trip to the moon. Good luck Stiney—hope you find her—the lady in the moon, we mean.

Ah! sweet essence of the country, we exclaim as we pass the blacksmith shop of Marlin Lentz and it doesn't surprise us a teeny bit to see Melvin Hamme standing in front of the horse while Marlin shoes him—don't get excited kids, we mean the horse of course. We stop there for a few minutes and they tell us that Dean Glatfelter has now taken over the old man's work as a country school teacher. He also informs us that John Hamme is a prosperous farmer and that Pearl Meckley now operates a beauty salon in the heart of a very promising city—Glenville I believe he said and it doesn't surprise us one bit to learn that Richard Brenneman is now the driver of one of Krebs' and Stauffer's Transits from Earth to Mars.

Going on further all we are able to see is space and spots before our eyes. Then we hear a crash and a moan and then our eyes open and we learn that we are now nowhere than in our own little living room before the fire, which has long since gone out—and the crash? Oh! that, Torie's always dropping something. That was the plate, the dear little plate, that held our candy and pickles, that are always guaranteed to give you dreams either good or bad.

Now as to whether this dream was good or bad is left for you to decide. The only thing we agreed upon was to never, never, again eat candy, pickles and milk before settling down before the fire because the results are more than we can bear.

We remain your loyal friends who will not be responsible for any possible broken or failure-to-run hearts, neither do we guarantee the contents to come true and sincerely hoping you all realize this was done with malice for all and mercy for none, including ourselves, sign off and hope to be seeing you all at the corner of Moonbeam and Star Avenue in Dreamland.

The new ones were Arlene Rother, Patricia Gift, Anna Harrall and Buna Hobson. A few days after school opened a new pupil, Ruby Humphrey, started, but she quit after several days. Buna Hobson was later transferred to Westminster High School.

Four of the sophomore girls were on the cheering squad. They were Lucile Miller, Phyllis Henry, Nadine Rinehart and Anna Harrall. Quite a few sophomore boys and girls were on the basketball teams.

The sophomores took part in the school play and in the operetta. Most of us enjoyed our sophomore year and are looking forward to our junior year. To those who will follow us we wish much success and happiness.

LITERARY SOCIETY

BY BETTY KREBS, '50

The Literary Society has been very active this year in sponsoring programs for the student body in the auditorium of the school on Friday afternoons.

Our programs usually consisted of quizzes, plays, poems, readings, dialogues, stories and musical selections.

The following members are the officers which served for our club during the year:

President—Lovie Tracy
Vice President—Lois Kitts
Secretary—Doris M. Walker
Treasurer—Lucile Miller
Reporter—Joyce Messerly

We sincerely hope that when September arrives and we are again assembled in the rooms of C.T.H.S. for our next term, more students will take an interest in the club and strive for programs which are enjoyable and entertaining to the students and faculty.

We who are not seniors this year extend to the graduates the best of luck in choosing their vocations in the wide field of opportunities offered to each and every one of them. May they be as successful in choosing their new vocations as they were in helping to make the society a great success.

FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA

BY LAWRENCE ROSER

As in previous years we held our first meeting and initiated sixteen boys as new green hands. Also seven boys became Future Farmers of America. One boy applied for the Keystone degree and another boy applied for the American degree.

Last summer three students attended the F.F.A. week at Penn State. They were accompanied by our adviser, Mr. Charles Miller.

The officers also attended the Leadership Training School as has been done for the last three years.

Our chapter also had two radio broadcasts. One was sponsored in March and the other in August. I believe that all of us who took part in the radio broadcasts got a great thrill and much experience out of it.

Several of the F.F.A. boys entered exhibits at the York Fair and the most of them received prizes. We received fifty dollars for the F.F.A. exhibits which we entered. We were the only school to enter a grass exhibit, so we took first prize in that.

We hope this year's seed sales will top last year's. We appreciated the help of the farmers and all those who bought seeds from us.

In our monthly meeting the following officers were elected:

President—Melvin Chronister

Vice President—Lawrence Roser

Secretary—Robert Rebert

Treasurer—Dean Rohrbaugh

Reporter—Roger Cramer

Watch Dog—Raymond Shaffer

Chaplain—Dean Glatfelter

MIXED CHORUS

BY MARGUERITE WARNER, '50

During this year the mixed chorus has had quite a few members. The chorus consisted of forty-five voices, of which thirty are girls and fifteen are boys.

The Christmas program and the operetta were successes. Most of the members have shown a fine spirit of cooperation. I think most of us enjoyed the chorus very much. We have learned some new songs and that is always very interesting.

Our operetta "Jerry of Jericho Road" was very pretty, and we hope all of you enjoyed it.

A number of girls and boys from the chorus attended the York County Music Festival and a few the District Music Festival.

We hope that those of you who will attend C.T.H.S. next year will join the mixed chorus again and we also invite the new faces in the school next year to join.

Girls' A Cappella Choir

GIRLS' A CAPPELLA CHOIR

BY GERALDINE BORTNER, '49

The A Cappella Choir presented a Christmas program in the auditorium that was enjoyed by everyone. We also took part in two church services, one at Shaffer's and the other at the United Brethren Church in Jefferson.

Not so long ago all one heard in chorus was, "I want to write my name down for this; Give me that paper; I want to try for this; I want to try for that!" You might have known they were trying out for parts in the operetta. Several days later you could see them looking on the bulletin board to see if they had made the parts for which they tried.

Now the members of the A Cappella Choir and also some of the members of the mixed chorus are busy learning songs that will be heard in our operetta called, "Jerry of Jericho Road." It surely seems as if they like the music of the operetta because some are always singing some of the songs. If you happen to pass someone in the hall and they are singing very pretty music, you will know that the song belongs to part of the operetta. It really has beautiful music, and I am sure everybody will agree after hearing it.

Everybody is trying his very best to make the operetta a success, and we hope it will be enjoyable to everyone.

Orchestra

Second row—Kenneth Myers, Lamar Krebs, Clyde Miller, Dwight Stauffer, James Miller, Robert Rebert, Roger Harbold, Frederick Trump, Howard Bensel, Miss Gaffney, instructor.

ORCHESTRA

BY CLYDE MILLER, '48

President—Clyde Miller
Vice President—Dwight Stauffer
Secretary-Treasurer—Treva Myers
Librarians—Roger Harbold and Lamar Krebs

We had a good time in orchestra this year—although, according to Miss Gaffney, we didn't have any "time" at all when we first began practicing "Near You"—or weren't you listening?

Since the night we played for the Lineboro Firemen's Carnival we have been bestowed the pompous title of "Codorus Hotlicks" (all apologies to Oogie Pringle). And by the way all those Lineboro girls tried to kidnap our drummer. It must have been the rhythm.

We played at most of the school activities again this year, which included the plays and the Halloween party. We think we did well at the senior play—that is after Oogie (Jim Miller) got all the paper pulled out of his cornet.

Well, we seniors bid you fellow orchestra members all a fond "au revoir" until we meet again in the Codorus Township symphonic orchestra.

Librarians

First row, left to right—Marguerite Warner, Phyllis Henry, Lucile Miller, Betty Krebs, Lois Kitts, Grace Thoman, Lois Sipe, Betty Wildasin.

Third row—Isabelle Keeney, Joyce Runk, Gladys Fourhman, Margaret Nafe, Doris E. Walker.

LIBRARIANS

BY GLADYS FOURHMAN, '48

The librarians have done quite a bit of work this year. We had several more librarians this year than last year, which we needed.

The library had about one hundred new books added to its shelves again this year.

Each class had its required and selective lists of books which they had to read and the librarians took care of the different groups.

All of us had an enjoyable time working in the library and we wish the future librarians much pleasure in their work.

Athletic Council

BY LUCRETA SENFT, '48

In the month of November, 1947, the school elected officers and representatives for the Athletic Council. They are as follows:

President—Melvin Chronister
Vice President—Clyde Miller
Secretary-Treasurer—Victoria Hoare
Senior Representative—Lucreta Senft
Junior Representative—Dean Rohrbaugh
Sophomore Representative—Laverne Gladfelter
Freshman Representative—George Luckenbaugh

The council has had several meetings during the year. This year for the first time, season tickets were sold for the basketball games. The president appointed Lucreta Senft as reporter and Mrs. Heindel as head of the publicity committee.

Volleyball

BY LOVIE TRACY, '48

The annual volleyball tournament was held the first Saturday in May. As before, it was held at Wrightsville, Pennsylvania.

The team consisted of Florence Miller, Helen Hamme, Marion Werner, Bertie Rohrbaugh, Margaret Schroll, Delores Flemmens, Lucreta Senft, Doris M. Walker, Lovie Tracy, Grace Thoman and Lois Sipe.

Wrightsville won the trophy, but we are still hoping to win the trophy this year.

Girls' Basketball

First row, left to right—Lucreta Senft, Victoria Hoare, Lovie Tracy, Delores Rohrbaugh, Doris M. Walker.

Second row—Grace Thoman, Mary Shaffer, Treva Myers, Lucile Miller, Lois Sipe, Mrs. Heindel, coach.

Absent—Anna Harrell, Patricia Gift, Lois Renoll, Jean Meckley, Phyllis Henry.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL REPORT

BY LOIS RENOLL, '49

This year the girls' basketball team has proved to be fairly successful. Some of the girls on the team will be leaving this year, but we hope the underclassmen will be interested in basketball so that in future years the teams will also be successful.

The scores for some of the games were:

Dover, 27 .....	Codorus, 11
Alumni, 19 .....	Codorus, 26

Although we were not victorious in all the games, the girls played very good basketball. May the future teams of C.T.H.S. have much success.

Cheerleaders

CHEERLEADING

BY VICTORIA HOARE, '48

The cheerleading squad this year consists of the following girls:

Captain—Victoria Hoare

Members—Delores Rohrbaugh, Lucile Miller, Nadine Rinehart, Phyllis Henry, Anna Harrell, Elva Hoare

This year the cheerleaders wore black flared skirts lined with red satin. They also wore white sweaters which had a "C" on the front. The captain's outfit was a flared white skirt lined with red satin. She also wore a turtle neck sweater with a "C" on it and a megaphone through the "C."

This year for the first time the cheerleaders had the pleasure of using a megaphone.

Although Pearl Meckley was stricken with infantile paralysis, she was chosen as an honorary cheerleader. Pearl had shown much ability as a cheerleader during her junior year.

The girls have quite a few new cheers, and all of them try to push the team on to victory.

Soccer Team

Second row—Leverie Miller, Laverne Glatfelter, Robert Rebert, James Miller, John Hamme, Curtis Parrish, Robert Stine, Roger Harbold.

Third row—Mr. Trout, coach, Francis Sterner, Richard Krug, Robert Stiffler, George Lucabaugh, Lamar Krebs, manager.

SOCCER

This year our school was represented in the York County Scholastic Soccer League. The teams which we played were Dillsburg, Dover, Manchester, New Oxford and North York.

Our team was not very successful in winning any games, but I think we gave Dover an exciting game by not letting them score until the last three minutes of the game. Then they scored one goal.

Every player tried hard and showed good sportsmanship while playing the games. So, to those who will participate in soccer next year, we hope you will try hard. If you can't be winners be good losers because that is the most important requirement of a good team.

Basketball Team

Second row—Clyde Miller, Burnell Wagner, Richard Krug, James Miller, Curtis Parrish, Roger Harbold, Mr. Trout, coach.

Third row—Clark Walker, Dean Rohrbaugh, Robert Stine, Francis Sterner, Melvin Chronister, Robert Stiffler, George Lucabaugh, Levere Miller.

BOYS' BASKETBALL

BY MELVIN CHRONISTER, '48

This year the basketball team again participated in the Southern Division of the York County Scholastic Basketball League.

We played nineteen games during the whole season. The varsity team was not very successful. They lost all of the league games, but they won the three exhibition games.

The junior varsity team won two games and lost nine, but they gave the opponents a tough defense. The games that they lost were lost by very few points.

The players showed good sportsmanship during all the games even though they did not win them. We hope that the future teams may have more success at winning games than we had.

Below are the scores for the league games.

Baseball

BY CURTIS PARRISH, '48

In 1947, as in previous years, Codorus was again placed in the Southern Division of the York County Scholastic Baseball League. Having a new coach, Mr. Clair Trout, our team had a successful season and their games by gaining second place in the league. Red Lion won the Southern Division Championship. Our opponents were Red Lion, Dallastown, Glen Rock, Stewartstown, New Freedom, and Delta.

We are looking forward to a successful season this year. We lost six of our players last year, but we are sure to find some good players this year.

The scores for the 1947 season were as follows:

Codorus— 1	Red Lion	— 7

Last Will and Testament of the Senior Class

Gladys Trone and Louise Shearer give their date book to Fairy Hetrick. On second thought we will wish her a new one because theirs is just about full.

To Lavere Miller we will Curtis Parrish's and Robert Stine's ability to study under any circumstances.

Anna Snyder, Erma Kaltreider, Marion Hunt, and Margaret Rudisill will their quiet and charming disposition to Phyllis Henry who probably will not have time to make use of it.

To George Harbold we give Dean Glatfelter's and Raymond Shaffer's excess hours of sleep. On second opinion they might need them for future Monday mornings.

Jack Barbehenn gives his ability to jitterbug to anyone who exhausts quickly.

To any Cassanova we will Marlyn Lentz's and Richard Graf's Vitalis look of well-groomed hair.

To our state of Pennsylvania we will rubberized guard fences so that when Roger Cramer comes along in that powerful Chevy to mow 'em down there will be a mere reflex action and no fenders will be smashed.

To Wayne Beckner and Roger Roser we bequeath Gladys Fourhman's and Gladys Shearer's industriousness and elimination of noise, or have you been told that before.

To the Woman Haters Club we wish many faithful members.

To the various teams we will barrels of pep and more spectators at each game.

I do hereby make, constitute and appoint the above named to be the Executors of this our last will and testament of the Class of 1948.

Signed, sealed, published, and declared by the above named have hereunto subscribed our name and affixed our seal this the thirteenth day of May in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred forty-eight.
