Bill Schintz, York commercial photographer and city civic activist, shares a postcard that shows Pulpit Rock, along the Codorus Creek. According to tradition, it was occupied by an Indian queen who addressed her Shawanese warriors after they had been defeated by the Susquehannocks. Schintz would like to know where Pulpit Rock is located. Could it be in the Spring Grove-Hanover area?

Pictured is Pulpit Rock along the Codorus Creek. Can anyone identify its location?
